FROM THE DESK OF ORGANISING COMMITTEE

Dear Colleagues,

It is with great pleasure, honor, and humility that we extend our invitation to CUTICON 2025, Kalaburagi, the 16th Annual Conference of the Indian Association of Dermatologists, Venereologists & Leprologists (IADVL) - Karnataka Branch. The conference will be held on the 21st, 22nd, and 23rd of November 2025 in Kalaburagi. This year, our conference theme is "Skin as a mirror of internal health."

As part of the event, our pre-conference CME will delve into "Newer Horizons in Dermatotherapeutics and Lasers," offering insights into cutting-edge treatments, innovations, and therapeutic approaches. Designed for both experienced practitioners and postgraduate students, this session aims to enhance clinical knowledge and expertise in emerging dermatological therapies. Additionally, we are excited to host hands-on workshop, offering participants practical experience in advanced procedures.

Warm Regards,
Team CUTICON Kalaburagi

ABOUT KALABURAGI

Kalaburagi, one of India's renowned Sufi cities, is home to several significant religious landmarks, including the Sharanabasaveshwara Temple, Khwaja Banda Nawaz Dargah, and Buddha Vihar. Rich in history, the city was ruled by the Rashtrakutas in the 6th century and later by the Yadavas, Hoysalas, Chalukyas, and Kalachuris in the 12th century. It later became the domain of the Bahmani Sultanate, which left behind architectural marvels such as the Jama Masjid, located within the Gulbarga Fort.

Kalaburagi is Known as the "Sun City of Karnataka," and historically referred to as Gulbarga, the "City of Flowers and Gardens," it promises a beautiful and welcoming atmosphere for our guests.

Our dedicated team of KDS members is committed to ensuring that your experience at CUTICON 2025 is both enriching and memorable.

We eagerly look forward to welcoming you all to Kalaburagi!
